Library Books

If your child has any remaining library books out, they will be receiving an overdue notice. On this, you will find the book information and replacement cost. Please take one more chance to look for these books. If you can't find them, you can send the form back in with the replacement fee attached. Thanks for helping us ensure that we can keep as many books as possible in the hands of the students!

King's Kids Connection

By Miss Nancy

The children are sure enjoying the month of May and all the beautiful new things spring has to offer. This week the theme has been seeds. Classrooms are planting seeds and watching them grow. That is what we do here. We have the privilege to watch each child develop and grow into their own beautiful flower.

Birthdays

- May 15th: Tucker and Ms. Nicole
- May 16th: Sierra
- May 19th: Claire

Calendar

(I have attached May's Calendar as well as our Summer Calendars.)

- Friday, May 28th at 9:30: Pre-K Graduation in the Sanctuary
- Monday, May 31st: CLOSED for Memorial Day

Summer Program

We are gearing up for our Summer Program and planning many fun things. You will be getting a Summer Edition Newsletter soon to cover all you need to know! We have 76 kids enrolled in our program.

Bible Verse of the Week

"Now the parable is this: the seed is the word of God."
-Luke 8:11

Trinity's ^{optional} May STEM Club Challenge

Challenge: Create something useful from items found in nature.

Follow the Engineering Design Process. Use the handout on the back to assist you in the process.

Materials: Materials collected from out in nature. (You may use adhesives to create your finished product as well.)

We can't wait to see your final creations of the school year! Thanks for participating in STEM Club this year!

Due to Trinity Lutheran School on Monday, May 24th.
